The meeting recessed at 9:11 a.m.

The meeting was called to order at 9:30 a.m. September 4, 2013 at the Commissioner's Meeting Room, 240 NW Vancouver Avenue in Stevenson, with Commissioners Robert Anderson, Chair, Christopher Brong, and Doug McKenzie present, opening with the Pledge of Allegiance.

Ed Callahan advised of his concern with the possibility of moving the Rosary Collection housed at the Interpretive Center to another location.

Bob Leick, former County Prosecutor advised that he drafted the agreement stating that the County would keep the Rosary Collection in perpetuity, stated his concern that other potential donors to the Interpretive Center may be concerned that the County would not keep their artifacts, and urged the Commissioners to keep the Collection.

Jim Price made discourteous comments to Commissioner Brong regarding the possibility of moving the Rosary Collection to another location.

Marilyn Weaver advised of her volunteer involvement at the Interpretive Center and stated that the Rosary Collection was the most popular exhibit.

Commissioner Brong advised that the County is looking at options to reduce payments from the Current Expense Fund and that the housing and care of the Rosary Collection is paid out of Current Expense. He urged citizens to attend budget meetings, and further advised that if the County does not receive Secure Rural Schools funding for 2014 they would be looking at all discretionary funding for possible reductions. He also advised that the possibility of moving the Rosary Collection has been discussion only and no decisions have been made.

Commissioner McKenzie moved, seconded by Commissioner Brong and motion carried unanimously to approve the Consent Agenda as follows:

1. Minutes of August 27, 2013.
2. Authorization to purchase a DVR Multiplexor for the jail cameras.
